VALEDICTORY

The hour of farewell has come. This is our pledge of love and gratitude for the fun we have had, the friends we have made, and the goals we have achieved through being a part of Flat Rock. We will be better individuals and citizens for having known her halls.

DEDICATION

The old and the new mingle forming tradition. Together as time passes they become history and all that is and was is forgotten. The contributions of men and women to Flat Rock High School have remained, unnoticed directly. Indirectly the work of each individual, both teacher and student, exists today as tradition.

For wise guidance, for patience, for knowledge, for giving their lives to and for us, the graduating class dedicates this, the 1960 Parade, to all those who have faithfully served on the faculty of Flat Rock High. Especially, we wish to praise these people whose names are synonymously linked with the name of Flat Rock. It is they who will cause memories of our school and its vital service to the community to linger as sparks of the past long after Flat Rock no longer exists as a high school.

For the founding of Flat Rock we owe much to Mr. J. S. Jones. He was our friend. He was interested in the education of the youth of this area.

The passing of time makes no change in the interest that Mr. Justus has always had in Flat Rock and in its individual students. As principal or coach, he challenges us to do our best.

We wish to show our appreciation to Mr. W. A. Franklin. He has become endeared to the students of Flat Rock because of his sharp wit, his friendly personality, and his work with the cheerleaders.

In this era of missiles and satellites we can fully appreciate a good math teacher. Miss Gardenia Osteen teaches algebra the "painless" way and expects quality performance from each pupil.

Mrs. Susie Sinclair served Flat Rock for a number of years as an excellent English teacher and friend. She contributed a number of dramatic works, which displayed her ability to exact from each performer his best. We are proud of the dramatic trophies, won mainly because of Mrs. Sinclair's talents and efforts in our behalf.

Rarely does a student find a teacher who not only has the necessary mastery over the knowledge in her field, but also has that innate quality which marks her as a person who is meant to teach. Mrs. Catherine Crawford has the ability to inspire, to "breath into" the student an admiration and an eagerness for the subject matter.

Time transforms the future into the present, the present into the past, and past into history.

PRINCIPAL

We are fortunate in having a principal as efficient and amiable as Mr. Justus. Although he has an incredible amount of work which has to be accomplished daily, he always has time to give a portion of himself.

Through the years he has taken special interest in each student, coaching and prodding him along. When we show some achievement, he is always one of the first to congratulate us.

We have praise and gratitude for a man of such high qualities as our principal, Mr. Justus.

I wish I had ample rewards to bestow upon students. You would really get the medal for improvement. It has been so nice to

FLAT ROCK HIGH SCHOOL

Her flame of knowledge has dispelled
the darkness of ignorance since 1926. Younger feet will tread
these halls to lay a foundation for learning in the new high school.
This is the finale!

ALMA MATER

By David Huff

Here among the lovely mountains of the old North State, proudly stands our Alma Mater with a past so great.

In our search for truth and knowledge, to your halls we came. Here we found the light of wisdom burning like a flame.

Now and always truly grateful, we your praises sing. May your loyal sons and daughters honor to you bring.

Chorus:

We salute you with all honor, worthy is your name, Flat Rock High School!
Flat Rock High School! We do proudly claim.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

The ninth year of school marks the beginning of a new life for students. It brings new friends, new customs, new subjects, and new responsibilities.

To the young novice, skies look very dark. Before them lie such "obstacles" as algebra, world history, American history, chemistry, Latin, French, geometry, trigonometry, - - - - and only four short years in which to vanquish these obstacles. Time is on the march.

CLASS

We have reached an important milestone in our formal education. We have conquered the foothills and are now ready for the challenge of the mountain.

With the privilege of being the first freshmen class in the newly erected school comes a challenge; we must take advantage of our opportunities.

Mrs. Rogers, Sponsor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Arnold Edmundson, President of the Student Body.

We are proud of these people. They show fine qualities of leadership and ambition. As Time ripens and increases these qualities, these student leaders will reach a high degree of success in this world.

Mrs. Lappin, chairman of the assembly committee, meets with Arnold Edmundson, President of the Student Council; Pat Orr, Secretary; and Terry Sinclair, Vice-President; to discuss future assembly programs.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mrs. Nickell, Sponsor

Planning a good yearbook requires the efforts of talented students and a patient sponsor who are willing to devote their time and ideas to the project. The selection of a theme, a plan for each page, and the molding of a series of pictures and phrases into the story of the school year, we have found to be pleasure, toil, and definite addition to our education. Yet the true reward is to hold the finished book in the spring and on each page see friends, teachers, and memories leap into life.

Steven George, Assistant Business Manager, and Steve Vaughn, Business Manager, total the day's receipts.

This fall, again, a committee of students announced to the merchants that they would sell advertisements in the school yearbook. The Business Manager and those co-operating with him began an extensive campaign upon which the financial success of the PARADE depended. In order to sell the publication below cost, profits from advertisements must equal the deficit. The Business Staff launched the campaign with enthusiasm and vigor. Now because of their success, we may distribute the yearbook charging the planned fee.

Pat Orr, Vice-President, and Ann S. Williams, Secretary, look on as H. M. Summey, President, lights the first taper in an installation ceremony.

BETA CLUB

This club has a goal which many students try to reach. It is an honor society. Its standards of achievement, personality, character, and leadership are high; its philosophy is:

"Our intellects can always grow:
Life's school does not adjourn.
Regardless of how much we know . .
There still is more to learn."

Mrs. Crawford, sponsor

RECEPTIONIST'S CLUB

An office without a receptionist would be like Main Street without a traffic cop. Members of the Receptionist's Club keep the office running smoothly by welcoming visitors, distributing the absence lists, operating the intercom, answering the phone, taking messages, and sorting the mail. These girls perform an indispensable service for the school.

Nancy Milner and Pat Orr assist by doing routine office work.

DEBATING CLUB

With debates scheduled for English periods, all seniors take part in these lively sessions.

F. H. A.

The members of this club are constantly working toward new horizons. A varied program in homemaking, development of the mind, and leadership help prepare them for the future homemakers.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

How do you judge a team? Many people pass judgment with a quick glance at the scoreboard. This isn't always the best method. The true greatness of a team lies in its enthusiasm, its sportsmanship, its dogged determination; not in the number of points scored. We have found these qualities in our girls' team.

BOY'S BASKETBALL TEAM

The Blue Devils this year have in the tradition of the past provided a good example of Flat Rock's excellent athletic program. Not only do they display skill in basketball but also good sportsmanship. We are proud of our team.

FIRST TEAM

The team in action.

The surest sign of spring's arrival is activity on the baseball diamond. The familiar cry, "Play ball!" rings across the field and the Blue Devils are at it again. A few practice sessions transform them into a team to be reckoned with. Who knows, may be we have the nucleus of the team that will be the world champs of 1970.

BASEBALL TEAM

The girls in the physical education classes enjoy softball in the fall and early spring.

CHEERLEADERS

SPONSOR

PAT ORR, Co-Captain
NORMA JEAN HOWARD, Captain

MR. W. A. FRANKLIN

Our cheerleaders consistently produce many new cheers which have become the envy of other schools. The extra spark that enables our teams to jump higher and run faster than our opponents, in many cases, comes from their hearty cheers. We can compare our cheerleaders with any squad in North Carolina and proudly announce, "Those are our girls."

LUNCHROOM LADIES

We wish to thank the ladies, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Hawkins, and Mrs. Johnson, who have carefully planned and prepared our lunches with consideration for both our health and appetites.

BUS DRIVERS

A word of thanks has been earned by our bus drivers for transporting us safely to and from school.

CUSTODIAN

Keeping our school clean and warm and everything in working order is a full-time job. The credit for this task well done we give to Mr. A. P. Lockaby, our friend and custodian.

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."
